

Halala Joburg Awards: JDA calls for Inner City Development nominations for 2010

The Johannesburg Development Agency (JDA) is an agency of the City of Johannesburg which stimulates and supports area-based development initiatives. The Halala Joburg Awards is an annual awards programme established by the Johannesburg Development Agency in 2008. The awards recognise private sector investors who are redeveloping and building Inner City properties. Nomination forms are now available on both the JDA and City of Johannesburg websites. The nomination process will close on 19 March 2010.
